There were several speakers at this meeting.

Sheriff Commander Justin Nelson from the Los Osos substation updated the group on how the Sheriff's department works with the local homeless encampments on public lands. There is no enforcement allowed on public land if people are just homeless, ie: committing a crime.

Commander Nelson does have a Community Action Team that can give citations as necessary. He does not see the citations as a clear deterrent.

Lieutenant Gill of the California Department of Fish & Wildlife (CDFW) gave information regarding his agency's ability to work with homeless people to maintain safety.

Tom Wright, the convener of Fire Safe Council meetings, gave an update on 201 Los Osos projects.

Emily Miggins reported that the Habitat Conservation Plan has been submitted.

Future projects include targeted chipping next year. Property owners will need to gather materials for disposal.
