Bruce Gibson’s report: County is trying to move forward on the homelessness project. County is dealing with a 5 million Dollar deficit. The total budget is 750 million dollars. board will be discussing where to make cuts.

Questions for Bruce

- Jim Stanfield What is the county doing about the fact that we don’t have enough housing.
- Deborah Howe asked for more information about the 5 million budget deficit.
- Pat McGibney wanted clarification about whether CSD or the County has control of the garbage.
- John Lindt asked for a crosswalk at Alexander and LOVR. Asked when the retrofit row rules will be finished. Answer was the end of April or early May.
- Linde Owen wanted to know if the County pulling us out of IWMA increased costs on us and was a part of this rate increase. Bruce said the excess costs were being paid by the General Fund. If CSD hadn’t taken Garbage back Los Osos probably would have been assessed. Linde also wanted to know when the deadline for protest of the trash rates was. Bruce said During the meeting where the rate increases are discussed. Linde was concerned that the berm on her street needs to be corrected. The six plex on her street flooded and then her property next door flooded. She called Tim Coates and he said they had no budget or plans to fix it although he agreed the berm was faulty.
- Becky McFarlin asked if CAPSLO has taken over Oklahoma Ave Houseless yet. The answer was no, county is still administering. Becky reported there are about 12 vehicles on Palisades during the day and around 20 at night.
